

"Natural Life is Death Row"

60 minutes in each second... 24 hours in each Minute...

Because the judicial powers intended...

To finish me off... by positing that at 16 years old That my life was worth being diminished.

So now I am also convicted of being a cynic...

I confess... I am cynical...

Plus this "death row" that I have been sentenced To... Makes feeling depressive seemingly integral...

And the atmosphere of each day is essential...

To what I breathe in each day... & I'm forever Seen as a criminal.

The correlation between my inhalation of this Toxic oxygen... because I live on death row...

It's like the Court has placed me in a ring with Muhammad Ali & Mike Tyson, both in their prime Yet I'm handcuffed & they expect for me to receive From both of them... a left blow...

And a judicial right hook... that shook... me to My very core...

Forever designated to society's basement... due to this Miserable existence... so I feel like Sun Tzu...

And I am buried... beneath the Art of War.

Trying to resurrect myself...

Because I can never perfect my mental health...

While in here... & it's clear... that imagining that Natural life is not akin to death row... doesn't really Help... because it is
